

CAMERA NEWS

THE FIRST SITTING OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS PALACE, GENEVA

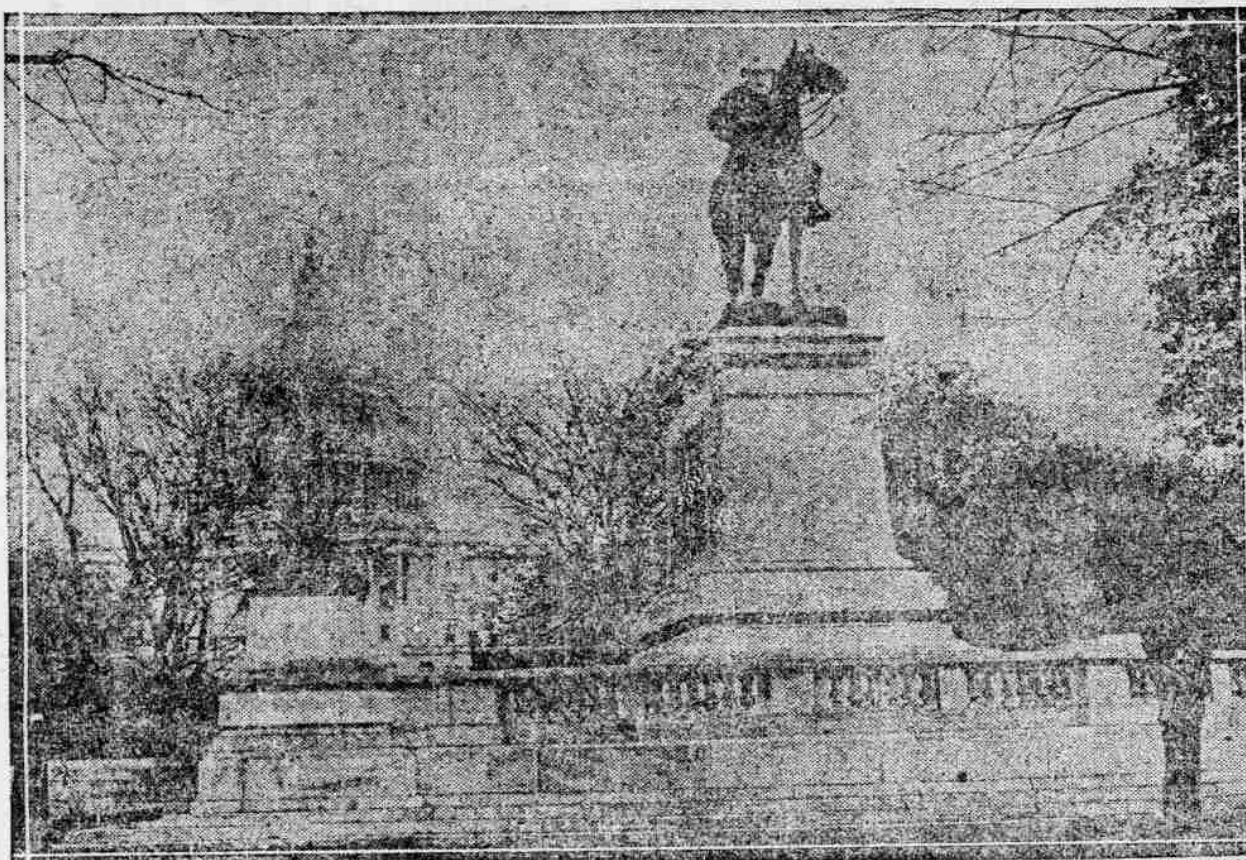

MRS. WOODROW WILSON
Photographed as she left St. John's Church, Washington, after attending the funeral of Ambassador Ekengren. Accompanied to her car by the President's military aide and Van S. Marl-Smith, Third Assistant Secretary of State.

BILL HART HAS A NEW ROLE
The famous movie actor ready to surprise some of his little friends.

WASHINGTON HAS TWO LEPEERS
The National Capital's Leper Colony of one has been increased 100 per cent. Charles H. Young, 50 years of age, having been taken into custody and placed in quarantine. This is the third leper to be confined in the District. John Early, the first leper, having escaped after several years of confinement. Photo shows, left to right: Charles H. Young, Willard Centlivre. Both are former soldiers and came to Washington seeking pensions.

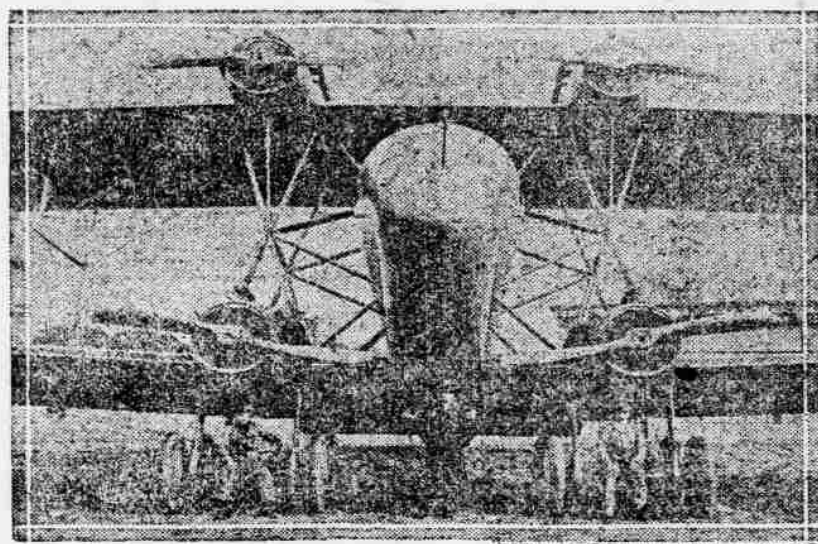

THE GRANT MONUMENT
Memorial to General U. S. Grant which has been placed in position in the Botanical Gardens at the foot of the Capitol, Washington. It will be unveiled shortly. This monument is the work of Henry M. Shrady and has been eighteen years in the making. The statue proper is of bronze and is the second largest of its kind in the world.

MRS. MURIEL MACSWINEY
The widow of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, Terrence MacSwiney, hunger strike victim, who is now in the United States. The length of her stay is uncertain.

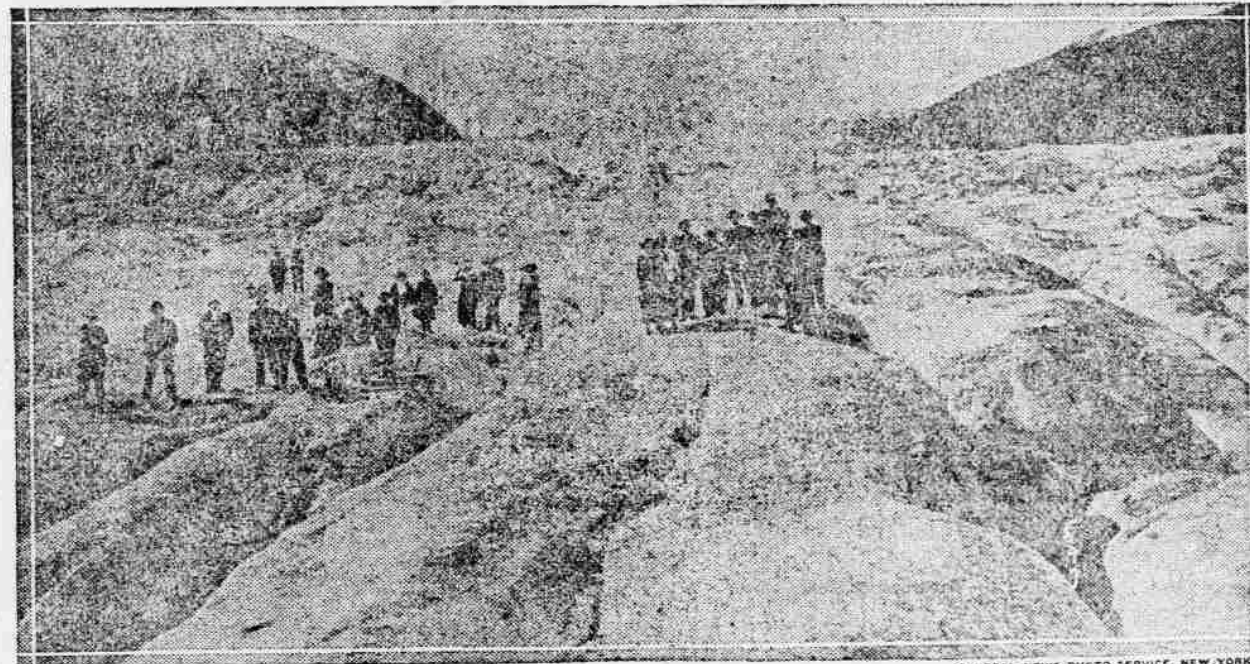

MARKED BY SINN FEINERS
Lord Decies, who is said to be one of the men marked by the Sinn Feiners because of his strong views expressed regarding Ireland's campaign for independence. Lord Decies is the husband of former Vivian Gould. Photo shows Lord Decies and his three children—Catherine, Eileen and George de la Poer Horsley-Beresford.

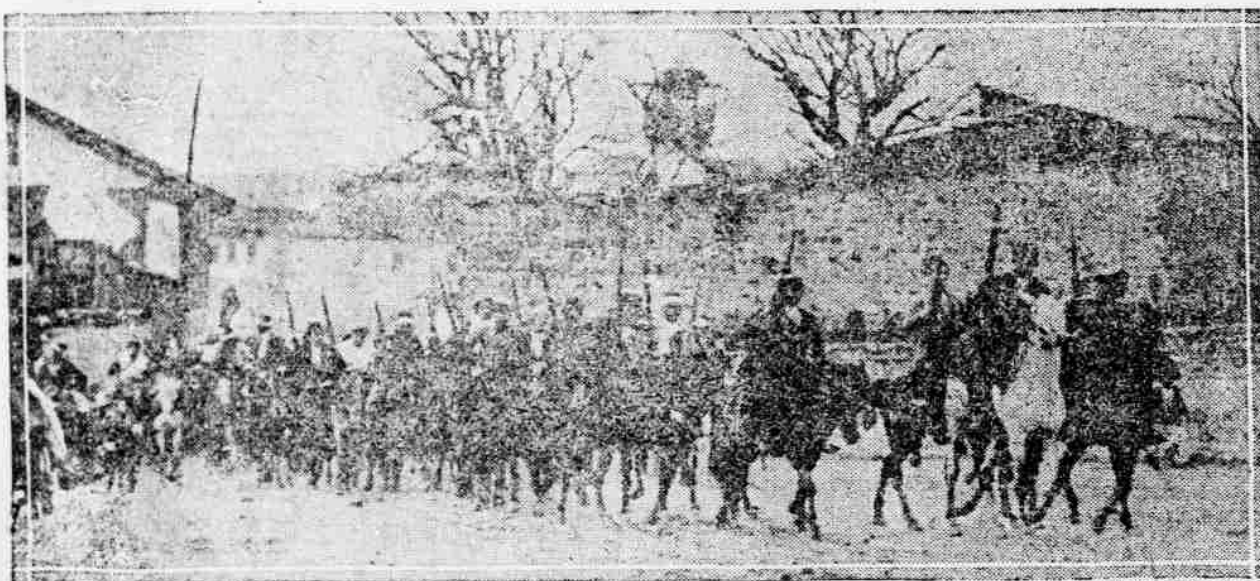

REMARKABLE BLERIOT AIRPLANE WITH FOUR MOTORS

A giant Blériot machine has just been completed in France. It has four powerful motors, two on the upper wings and two on the lower ones and two sets of landing gear. It is very stable and capable of a speed of more than 200 miles an hour.

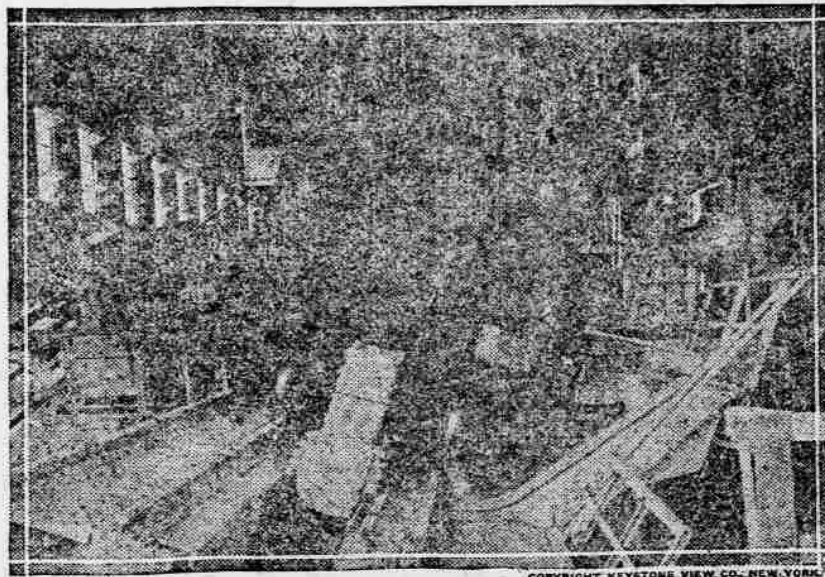

GREAT ALASKAN GLACIER IS ONE OF THE INTERESTING SIGHTS FOR TOURISTS

American tourists find the great glacier on the Slikino River near Wrangell, Alaska, a most interesting spectacle. U. S. aviators who recently flew to Alaska from Mineola, L. I., landed near this glacier.

TURKISH REBEL CAVALRY THAT IS FIGHTING THE ALLIES AND ALL CHRISTIANS IN ASIA MINOR

These troops are a type of the Turkish Rebels under command of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, who are waging war against the Allies in Asia Minor and Cilicia. They are known as Chetos and are little better than brigands, pillaging, murdering and fighting all Christians, save American workers of the Near East Relief. They are excellent horsemen and well armed.

THE LATEST MECHANICAL TIME AND LABOR SAVER IN THE HANDLING OF BREADSTUFF

This immense car, which looks as though it were standing topsy-turvy, is a box car loaded with grain at the P. R. R.'s Baltimore grain elevator. It empties the grain at the rate of forty cars an hour just as quickly as a man could pick up and empty a bag of flour. The car is tilted at such an angle that it can pour the grain or wheat right into the bins below the elevated railroad track.

ARMORED CAR WHICH WAS RECENTLY ATTACKED BY SINN FEINERS

This armored car stationed outside a bank in the Philsborough District of Dublin was attacked by Sinn Feiners, who fired at the occupants through loopholes. The driver was injured and a civilian shot dead in the battle, the attackers being finally repulsed.